ASSOCIATED PRESS Leased Wire

DAY AND NIGHT REPORTS. WEATHER FORECAST. Fair tonight and Sunday; warm-er Suday.

EL PASO HERALD

EL PASO, TEXAS. Monday Evening, October 13, 1913-12 Pages

Elect Democratic Lower House Next Time.

HAGERMAN AND BURSUM FOR PEACE

LBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 13 .-"New Mexico needs to elect a Democratic lower house in the election of 1914," declared governor W. C. McDonald, while here during the fair. It is for the best interests. of the state that the voters elect a Democratic lower house. It is now two-thirds Republican, and likewise the upper house. A Democratic lower house would quickly convince the senate that it was time for it to do something, instead of working as at present perconcilishing poting.

"The time is coming in politics when men will eliminate the imaginary line. Men who think alike along political lines will act alike, the same as they Eliminate Political Line.

Men who think alike along political lines will act alike, the same as they do in business matters.

"New Mexico is progressing and developing. The spirit in the new state is changing. Men are beginning to see things in a much different light than a few years ago.

"In our big light in New Mexico over the county salaries bill, I repeatedly told the opponents to my position that I was not fighting them as individuals, but was fighting the principle. I believe in paying good wages to the officials, but not that they shall contribute a large portion of that salary to campaign funds and then employ inefficient help.

"In politics, it seems that men do not hesitate to ask an official to make some appintment or to work for some appropriation from the public treasury that they would not think of asking from a partner or from a director of a business corporation.

"The tariff is a matter of adjustury that they would not think of asking from a partner or from a director of a business corporation.

Adjustment of Tariff.

"The tariff is a matter of adjustment. I do not believe that the new law will affect the New Mexico interests. For instance, I believe the price of wood will be higher than under the protective tariff. Free cattle will not hurt the cattle industry in the States. The sellers in Mexico are wise enough to add the former tariff cost to their original cost, making no difference in the price of beef on the hoof, when it reaches the border.

"There is nothing to fear from free meat from the Argentine. Outside of the United States thore is no country that can supply the beef necessary for our markets. There is a safe-guard against the imported beef in rigid inspections and there will be large quantities of such beef that will not pass inspection.

An Example of Greed.

"The protests against free cattle and meat is an example of greed. There are men who would put the price of a heifer at $50 if they could, only to further their own interests.

"One often hears the argument of having a tariff to protect the working man. It has been my observation that the labor protects itself.

"I do not believe the bankers should write a new currency bill. They are inclined to be too conservative in business propositions affecting the entire country as well as their own interests.

"I have the greatest confidence in president Wilson, and as sceretary Lane, of the interior department, said: the president will leave the greatest impression upon the people of this country."

Bursum to Be on Ground.

H. O. Bursum a Republican leader.

Bursum to Be on Ground.

H. O. Bursum, a Republican leader, defeated for the office of governor in the first state election by W. C. McDonald, declared:

"The Republicans are going to carry this state in the next election. They are lining up; many who left the party have returned, and others are coming. Here in Bernalillo county where they did the damage, they are beginning to line up for the next battle." Mr. Bursum was asked if he would be a candidate for governor at the next gubernatural election which will be in 1916.

"It is too far away to say at this time, but if I am not dead and it is not too cold (the weather being chilly when he made the remark) I am going to be on the ground.

Getting Together.

Former governor H. J. Hagerman, of Roswell, is of the opinion that the New Mexico Republicans are getting together.

gether.

"The example set by the national party in smoothing out the differences will have a great effect upon the states," said the former governor.

"The changing of the rules regarding the selection of delegates from the south is a step in the right direction.

"There is a disposition in New Mex-tee at the present time to elect men to the legislature who will be able to solve the problems confronted, this disposition being to improve the qual-

Outsiders looking inside express the opinion that the Democrats will fight against the reelection of congressman Harvey B. Fergusson. It is asserted by men who declare they are in a po-sition to know, that congressman Ferby men who declare they are in a po-sition to know, that congressman Fer-gusson lost many friends by his pesi-tion on the tariff measure, when he declared he was for a tariff on wool, but would stay by the party and vote for free raw wool, which he did.

Adjournment Wold Be a Political Blunder.

HOBSON STARTS WAR AGAINST UNDERWOOD

7 ASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13 .-Conferences today between president Wilson and senators disclosed a sentiment against any recess of congress while the currency bill is pending.

"I think it will be a political blunder equal to a crime," said senator Stone, of Missouri, at the conference with the president, "if we do not pass a currency bill during the present session. We cannot let it go over until Decem-

Will Speed Up Action. Senator Simmons said Democratic leaders would continue to work for a prompt termination of hearings and early consideration of the bill. Senators Shepard and James, of Kentucky, the correspond emphatic views against also expressed emphatic views against any recess.

Representative Unlerwood discussed with the president the question of keeping a quorum in the house while the senate committee was handling the currency question. Secretary McAdoo also had a brief conference with president Wilson. dent Wilson.

President Wilson has let it be known that he does not favor a recess of congress at this time but desires uninterrupted consideration of the pending curency bill. Reports that the president was atempting to force the senate to act more speedily than it wished, and efforts on the part of some Democratic senators to secure a recess until November 15, brought from those close to the president a clarification of the white house position.

The president, they said, had no idea of attempting to fix an arbitrary time when the currency bill should or should not be enacted into law. His wish as expressed through his conferences with Wlison Objects to Recess.

The president is pointing out, too, not in just a year the direct election a senators will be in effect for the first time. The president believes that the Democratic party on that occasion will be placed on the stand as a unit to prove its claims for a continuation in power. With a record of accomplishment—tariff, currency and other big reforms—behind them, he is confident the party will be reformed to fident the party will be returned to control the congress with an even larger majority in the senate.

In the coming week the president will have before him the urgent deficinency bill with its provisions exempting deputy collectors of internal revenue and deputy United States marshals from the civil service. It is believed he will sign the measure on the ground that he is empowered by executive order at any time to place these positions in the civil service.

Ashurst's Move is Blocked.

Senator Ashurst of Arizona unsuecessfully attempted again today to get the senate to agree on a time for definite action on the proposed constitutional amendment for woman suffrage. Senator Hoke Smith blocked a proposed agreement to debate the amendment from Jan. 8 to 29 with a vote on the latter day because he felt that it might delay the currency bill.

Smith Objects to Delay.

Senator Hoke Smith in the senate objected to any legislative agreement that might delay the administration currency bill. Ashurst's Move Is Blocked.

currency bill.

Country bankers testified before the banking committee.

President Wilson nominated an attorney for Hawaii and several postmasters.

Hebson Assalis Underwood.

Representative Hobson launched a hot attack against the senatorial campaign of Democratic leader Underwood in the house, when he churged that his support of Underwood's presidential candidacy at the Baltimore convention was obtained under "false pretenses." Hobson, himself a candidate in the present Alabama contest, referred to printed reports of a recent speech in which he charged that Mr. Underwood was "the tool of Wall street and liquor interests" and read from the senate investigation of campaign contributions the testimony of senator Bankhead, containing the record of a contribution of $35,000 from Thomas F. Ryan and Bankhead's statement that Underwood had not known who financed his campaign.

s campaign.
"Had I known," shouted Hobson, "Had I known," shouted Hobson,
"that Thomas Fortune Ryan, the man whom Mr. Bryan rebuked and named before the Baltimore convention, had financed the major portion of the campaign, I not only would not have supported, but I would have fought him and what is more, he never would have been the choice of the people of Alabama. The support of the people of Alabama for Mr. Underwood for presi-

(Continued on page 10.) SLAYER OF WOMEN ADMITS HE IS A GHOUL

HICAGO, Ill., Oct. 13.—Harry Spencer, having practically convinced the police that he is at least thrice a murderer, and the perpetrator of innumerable robberies, claimed added disitnction as a ghoul today.

He said that at the time of the Iroquois theater fire in Chicago, in which 600 lives were list, he was among the first on the scene and assisted in carrying bodies

One woman whom he bore out was richly gowned and burned beyond recognition. Watchfulness of the police prevented him from tobbing the body at the time, but that night, probably the most profoundly sad in the city's history, he obtained a woman accomplice, went to one of the numerous temporary morgues and "identified" the body as that of the accomplice's sister, "Nellie Skarupa," Skarupa being one of the aliases of Spencer.

By this ruse they obtained possession of the body and had it buried.

"We got $1500 worth of jewelry and $1100 in cash off her," said Spencer.

I last week as being on the railway near Villa Ahumada, have not been loicated since, and train service will probably not be resumed until they are, arcordance to Juace reports. By this ruse they obtained possession of the body and had it buried. ruess she's still buried under that nam

Roy Woofter, After Trying to Break Clovis Jail.

SUDDEN TURN TO CASE ON SUNDAY

LOVIS, N. M., Oct. 13.-The celebrated J. O. Lynch murder case, full of thrills and sensations from the very first hour it was called

It all came about by the unfortunate conduct of the defendant himself. The state closed its case in chief against him late Saturday afternoon and the defence was given until Monday morn-state closed its case in chief against him late Saturday afternoon and the defence was given until Monday morning to put on its case.

Tries To Break Jail.

Sunday afternoon while defendant's counsel were absorbed with work on the various branches of defence, word came to them that Lynch had attempted to break jail and had been caught in the act. Consultations were hurriedly held and the defendant's attorneys quickly dropped work on the case and started an investigation.

It was found that sheriff D. L Moye and his wife would testify that Lynch had planned to escape and his plans were overheard while arranging with co-prisoners were to play a harp and a guitar and keep up the noise while Lynch burrowed through the brick wall of the room in the jail where the three were confined. Sheriff Moye, upon investigation, found that a part of the work had actually been done and that a barrel had been placed before the breach in the wall to conceal its location, a barrel which contained disinfectants for the better sanitation of the room. infectants for the better sanitation of Breaks Paith With Keepers. The president, they said, had no idea of attempting to fix an arbitrary time when the currency bill should or should not be enacted into law. His wish as expressed through his conferences with senate leaders has been for continuous attention to the currency measure with the confidence that with concentrated effort and study the bill will be out of the senate before the December session of congress. While adverse 10 any haste that would impair the value of the currency reform, the president is anxious that if the senate can improve upon the house bill it will proceed to do so. He still believes, however, that all this can be accomplished during the seven weeks remaining of the present sessions.

Considers Direct Elections. absolute confidence in his fidelity and courage to meet whatever sentence, whether gullty or innocent, that might be passed in the case and up to Sunday afternoon, he had proved as true to his honor as the needle to the pole.

Friends Are Astounded.

Not only his counsel and the district judge, but all who know him were astounded at his conduct Sunday and his mother. 80 years of age, who came all the way from Texas nearly a thousand miles, to be at his side in this great crisis of his life, was obsessed and broken hearted.

His counsel were buoyant with hope of his acquittal and the almost universal consensus of opinion was that the result would be an acquittal or at worst a hung jury. His attorneys were accordingly stunned by this denoument of the most remarkable murder case ever called for trial in New Mexico and on consultation it was decided that they could do not! ing for him but accept a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree rather than run the risk of a verdict in the first degree and a death sentence in view of the extraordinary break that Lynch had made.

Event the hegipning they had seri-From the beginning they had seriously considered a plea of insanity but decided that his aberrations of mind were not sufficient foundation for the plea and that it would be dangerous

GOVERNOR ATTACKS TENNESSEE ANTIS

Message Reveals Alleged Plan to Oust Eight Members From the Legislature.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 13 .- Prior to the meeting of the extra session of the Tennessee legislature, called to consider prohibition law enforcement bills today, governor Hooper had prepared a special message outlining the alleged plans of the opponents of the legislation. The first of these according to the message, which was to be submitted as soon as the legislature convened, was the denial to the majority the right of roll call in order that "Fraudulent and arbitrary" rulings might be made as to the viva voca vote; second, substitution of the bills proposed by substitution of the bills proposed by others with the "teeth" removed; third, by ousting eight members of the house, friends of the bills, who, prior to August 1, served as deputy fire marshals. In this connection the governor declared this plan without legistative precedent.

He said about an equal number of the pposition were reported to have had The legislature planned to adjourn immediately after convening, out of respect to the memory of the late senator

Has Piece of Shinbone Grafted on His Spine

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 13.—Ralph M. Armstrong, a club man of this city, is recovering at a local hospital from an unusual operation, that of the graft-ing of a piece of his shin bone into his

A year ago he injured his spine by falling in a bath tub at his home. He apparently recovered, but some months later again suffered spinal injuries while pluying baseball. An operation was decided on and Armstrong was to-day declared cured.

NATIONAL STILL TIED UP. Present indications are that no train will leave for the south over the Mex-ican National railroad Wednesday, Maximo Castillo's bandit gang, reported ang to Juarez reports.

Says New Mexico Should Democratic Leaders Declare Pleads Guilty to Murder of One of the Season's Newest Model Gowns Recalls Old

> SHOW IS MADE OF BEAUTY DRESSED UP

By Frederic J. Haskin. ASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13 .-What next? The minaret gown with its wired tunic, portends for trial, came to an abrupt ending this the renascence of the hoop skirt; the morning at 9 oclock when the man un- tango gown prophesies the possibility der indictment for having killed Roy of trousers; and now comes the Woofter, city marshal of Roswell, en- bustle! To go into particulars: tered an unconditional plea of guilty In recent years the feature of of murder in the second degree and the seasonal "openings" in the received a sentence of 99 years in great retail stores of the larger ities has been a gorgeous processional of beautiful young women, wearing the very latest and the very newest costumes. These processions primarily

One of the most netable of this season's displays was staged in a New York store. It was cosidered of such importance that "Woman's Wear," a daily trade Journal, made it the principal feature of two issues of that paper. Perhaps not the least interesting feature of this particular promenade was the reappearance of the bustle.

In this processional some 25 or 30 beautiful young models entered upon the scene from the baloony at the back of the anditorium. Descending the steps, they passed slowly along the broad promenade, keeping step to oriental music furnished by an orchestra. Through an archway they passed tra. Through an archway they passed into a scene representing the interior of an oriental temple. The broad walk was hordered on either side with rows as horus.

I large round grownhe into a Persian garden, the setting taken from the Third act of "Le Minaret."

First of all was a costume called "the Zaida," having the zouave skirt of black satin, draped in Turkish fashion, with the skirt caught in the middle at the bottom, so as to form an adaptation of Turkish trousers. With these black satin trousers was worn adaptation of Turkish trousers was worn and a short veivet coat of sapphire blue.

Minaret Costume Unique.

Minaret Costume Unique.

Same the minaret costumes.

Minaret Costume Unique.

Same the minaret costumes on the scene. During the time the fire from the hold was kept more or less under control, but about 9 oclock on under control but about 9 oclock on under co

The first was triple accordion-pleated flounce skirt of carise chiffon, each skirt wired with hoops and trimmed with gold fringe, standing well out from the body. Above each flounce a hand of gold braid encircled the skirt. The model wore no corsets and her legs from the knees downward were discornible through the filmy draperies. She wure red silk stockings and black Turkish shoes with curled and pointed ends, encrusted with silver. The bodice, reaching just above the bust, was held up by shoulder straps of gold braid. Over the shoulder was thrown a black lace scarf. Upon her head she wore a picturesque head dress of black velvet in helmet shape, with a spiral a picturesque head dress of black velvet in helmet shape, with a spiral mount of gold tinsel and on each side hung huge baroque pearls.

The next model wore white accordion-pleated pantaloons finished with silver bullet fringe at the feet. Over the pantaloons was mounted a minaret tunic of white satin, trimmed with black velvet roses. The tunic boasted of a hoop and stood well out from the body. The extremely low bodice, innocent of sleeves, was decorated with ropes of huge silver beads. This model also wore Turkish shoes.

Princess Relucarnated.

The next model was a reincarnation

Princess Relucarnated.

The next model was a relucarnation of a princess of Bagdad. She wore a white satin skirt, ending in a pointed train at the back and slashed high in the center front. Below her quaint, old-fashloned short-waisted bodice of black velvet was arranged a series of five accordion-pleated white crepe flounces, forming the tunic, each decorated in the center front with a long black jet tassel. The waist line was defined by a zone of rhinestones. Not to be outdone by Poiret, who revamped the hoop skirt, another Parisian modiste, Premet, has brought back the bustle. In this promenade (Continued on Page Four.)

Biggest Store Ad Today

ment of the $15 Clothes Shop, on page 2 of this section, has the honor of being the largest in today's paper.

SPECIAL NOTICE—The Herald will on each day call attention to the largest store advertisement in the current

Value of the latest and the latest a

DAILY RIDDLES QUESTIONS.

1. Why is a pretty young woman like a wagon wheel?
2. Why is the letter S like a smart repartee?
3. What is it which if you even name it you break lt?
4. What sort of men are always above board in their movements?
5. How many weeks belong to the year?

Answers will be found under their appropriate numbers scattered through the Classified Advertising

Has 105 of the Volturno's Passengers Aboard.

SECOND EXPLOSION IS CAUSE OF PANIC

N BOARD the North German Lloyd O Steamship Grosser Kurfurst at Sea, by Wireless Telegraph, Oct. 13.-With 105 survivors on board from the Volturno, which burned to the water's edge and was abandoned on Friday last, the Grosser Kurfurst is approaching New York.

The passengers and crew of the Grosser Kurfurst witnessed some thrilling scenes when their vessel, called by distress signals from the Volturno, ar-tress signals from the Volturno, arrived in her vicinity.

Fire Burns Fiercely.

The Vulturno burned fiercely and her crew and passengers were helpless in the heavy seas. It was learned by wireless messages from the flaming vessel that the fire had been started by an explosion in the forward hold at 7 oclock on Thursday morning, ship's time.

On the arrival of the Grosser Kurfurst, the flames from the hold of the Volturno were leaping 80 feet into the air through the hatchways. It was learned that 50 or more of the Volturno's crew and steerage passengers had been killed by the explosion and the fire.

Life Boats Smashed.

pumps thereupon were unable to work at full pressure and the flames broke out through the entire forward part of the ship.

Explosion Causes Panie. At 20 minutes to one, Thursday night, inother explosion occurred on the Volespairing passengers and crew.
The Grosser Kurfurst launched three coats and rescued 22 persons, who had seen washed into the sea. One of the been washed into the sea. One of the rescuing life boats was out for six hours and was nearly lost.

All those remaining on board the Volturno crowded together at the end of the vessel and were taken off safely after daybreak on Friday.

CARMANIA ARRIVES WITH ONE SURVIVOR

Ship's Bulletin Tells of Desperate Efforts Made to Reach the Volturno:

Survivor's Story Graphic. London, England Oct. 13 .- The Car-London, England Oct. 13.—The Car-mania, first of the rescue vessels on the scene of the disaster to the Vol-turno, arrived at Fishguard this af-ternoon, Captain Barr met the news-paper correspondents with a positive refusal to say a word about the Vol-turno until the Carmania reached Liv-erpool and he had delivered his report to the Carmany Warsterney to the Cunard company. He referred his wouldbe interviewers to the ship's bulletin for an account of the tragedy The greater part of the contents of this had already become history. The fire on the Volturno appears to have originated in her cargo hold. When it became evident that the flames had gained the mastery, captain Francis Inch devoted all his energy to the salvation of his passengers.

The Carmania's bulletin says that fix small boats were launched from the small boats were launched from the Volturno, that two of them, with 35 persons each on board, got away and that the other four were smashed against the ship's side and all their occupants perished.

Try to Encourage Frightened People.

After the failure of life boats from

Try to Encourage Frightened People.

After the failure of life boats from the Carmania to reach the burning ship, and when captain Barr maneuvered his vessel close to the Volturno, the passengers on board the Cunarder did everything in their power to encourage the terrifled crowd, huddled together in the after part of the Volturo. They waved handkerchiefs and shouted cheering words through megaphones, to which they received answering signals from the immigrants on the Volturno.

Balked in his attempts to establish communication between the Carmania and the Volturno, captain Barr sent out broadcast wireless signals, which brought to the vicinity an international fleet to the succor of the doomed tional fleet to the succor of the doomes ship.

Late on Thursday afternoon captain Barr made another attempt to reach the Volturno by throwing life rafts, which he hoped might be picked up by those on hoard, but this also proved futile.
In the meantime the dispairing messages from captain inch of the Volturno calling for succor, grew more insistent as the flames are their way through.
Great clouds of smoke enveloped the ship.

ship.
At thout 7 oclock in the evening captain Inch succeeded in lowering a boat in charge of the second officer of the Volturno and a crew of four men, with the intention of taking a line to the Grosser Kurfurst.

The small boat, after a desperate struggle, reached the German liner's side only to be dashed to pieces. Its occupants managed to seize lines thrown out by the German sailors and were sayed.

saved. Flames Light Up the Sky. About half past nine at night the sky was suddenly illuminated with a lurid glare as the flames burst through an-(Continued on next page.)

Steamer Grosser Kurfurst Gamboa and Calero Will Both Lind and O'Shaugh-Urge Supporters to Abide by Result of Election.

> SPLIT IN MEXICAN ARMY THREATENED

candidates for the office of president, Federico Gambon, representing the Catholics, and Manuel Calero, the Liberals, met today and discussed the recent developments in the situation. They agreed to proceed with their campaigns and to advise with their campaigns and to advise their followers to support after the elections which ever of them was successful at the polls.

Split in Army Expected.

There has been endless speculation here regarding the effect of Provisional president Huerta's coup d'etat. Many appear to believe that the logical result will be a split in the army, which they assert has only been held together by general Huerta's personality. They argue that there has been dissatisfaction over Huerta's course in general and that this will test loyalty to the danger point. general and that this will test loyalty to the danger point.

Huerta's friends say it is no secret that had the deputies believed any subsantial part of the army would stand with them they would have overridden Huerta completely and taken the reins of government wholly in their hands.

Cannot Be Released on Writs.

The minister of the interior. Manuel Garza Aldape, has issued the fellowing announcement:

"The deputies who have been arrested and imprisoned cannot be and imprisoned cannot be released on any writ. They will be tried for the various offences of which they are ac-cused. Not one of them has been re-leased by the government to date. They treated well while in confine Elections Will Re Held. "The dissolution of congress will not affect the holding of the elections in the least. The ballots will be cast in October. The only change in the election program will be that new senators and deputies will be elected to replace those put out of office by the coup d'etat.

The governors, civil and military, ot The governors, civil and military, of all the states have been notified of the dissolution of congress and all have responded, accepting the government's course of action. All the governors have reported that conditions in their respective states and territories are tranguil and that there have been stated in the conditions of the con tranquil and that there have been no disturbances anywhere." Minister Aldape has assured the fam-llies of the deputies that the prisoners will be treated with consideration. They will be allowed to receive clothing, food and reading matter from their families, but will not be permitted to talk to any one, even on regular visiting days.

Detachments of troops patrol the streets, but the excitement which resulted from the coup has subsided. At no time has there been any rioting or disorder in the capital in consequence of the events of the last few days.

LOWER CALIFORNIA

INVADED BY REBELS Douglas, Ariz. Oct. 13.—Official insurgent advices from Hermosillo report that the towns of Murot. Felipe and San Quentin, in Lower California, had been taken by rebel forces. This was said to mark the first successful "Censtitutionalist" invasion of the tertiory. It was also reported that the federals were again driven back when they attempted a sortic from Empalme. hey attempted a sortle from Empalme,

AMERICAN IS RELEASED

BY FEDERALS AT C. P. DIAZ

Eagle Pass, Tex., Oct. 13.—Arthur

Temple, staff writer for a New York magazine, was released after his arrest in C. P. Diaz, Mexico, on a charge of making seditious statements alleged to have been printed in the publication for which he writes. Consul Blocker was instrumental in securin bly selesses for which he writes. Consul Blocker was instrumental in securin his release which is said to have been conditional on his departure from Mexico and a promise that he would say nothing further about the revolution.

More than half the federal garrison in C. P. Diaz has gone south, presumably to meet rebels reported advancing from Fuentes and Hacienda Gusdalupe.

nessey Instructed to Make Representations.

NO LONGER HOPE FOR OCTOBER ELECTIONS

A EXICO, CITY, Mex. Oct. 13.—Two President Wilson Does Not Believe an Impartial Election Can Be Held.

> ASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 13.-After a conference between secretary Bryan and president Wilson today, it was announced at the white house that telegrams had been dispatched to both John Lind at Veracruz and charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City, to make representations to the Huerta government that the United States would look with displeasure on any injury to the Mexi> can deputies now under arrest. It has been left entirely to Mr. Lind's discretion whether he should return to Mexico City to impress those views on the Mexican authorities, but charge O'Shaughnessy has been directed to address himself to the minister of foreign relations and make it plain that the United States attaches "the gravest Importance" to the arrest of the deputies and is keenly interested in what will be their fate.

President Wilson Not Hopeful. President Wilson told callers today, that, with the present state of affairs, he did not see how a constitutional election could be held in Mexico. So far as the immediate policy of the United States is concerned, it was made oal position that the Mexicans should actile their own affairs. There are no plans today for any increase in the number of American war ships in Mexican waters.

Will Awalt Course of Events.

The government here has practically abandon all hope of seeing an election or treating any further with Huerta as an individual. There is a disposition in administration circles to await the course of events with the hope that the factional lines will be so lightly drawn as to bring about a natural adjustment without outside interference.

a natural adjustment without outside interference.

Dispatches to the state department report about 90 Mexican deputies still under arrest. Originally it was reported that 110 were arrested, and in view of the statement of Manuel Garza Aldape, minister of the interior, that "not one of the deputies had been released," it is presumed here that not all of the 110 finally were imprisoned after the episode at the Mexican chamber of deputies on Friday.

Diax May Change Stantion.

Throughout the day messages came

Diaz May Change Situation.

Throughout the day messages came to the state department describing the situation in the Mexican capital as quiet, but fraught with all sorts of possibilities. Attention was drawn to the approaching return of Felix Diaz, homeward bound, as likely to have some effect on the situation. Some of the imprisoned deputies were close friends of Diaz and his influence may be brought to bear to secure their release.

YAQUIS ON RAID NEAR HERMOSILLO

Governor Hunt, of Arizona, Exchanges Greetings With Governor Carranza on Border Line at Nogales. Nogales, Ariz, Oct 13.—Yaquit in-dians raided the property of a graphite company, 40 miles east of Hermosillo, operated by Fred Carruthers, an Amer-ican. All provisions arms and ammican. All provisions arms and ammu-philon were taken by the indians, ac-ording to information received here. Governor Hunt, of Arizona, and gov-Governor Hunt, of Arizona, and governor Carranza, insurgent governor of the Mexican state of Coahulla, met yesterday at the international line here. They shook hands and through an interpreter exchanged social greetings. A Mexican band played "The Star Spangled Banner" as they met. Carranza was accompanied to the line from Hermosillo by governor Maytorena and other Sonora state offi-(Continued on next page.)

RUSSIAN COURT HOLDS MURDER TRIAL IN CAVE

K iEV, Russia. Oct. 13.—The entire | A boy gave evidence that he had court engaged in the trial of brushed and cleaned Nejinsky's cont on that day. murder of the boy, Andrew Yushinski, JEWS PROTEST CHARGE IN in 1910, was transferred temporarily to the cave in which the boy's body . Washington, D. C., Oct. 13.—Resolutions found. The jury, judge and countions of protest against accusations bewas found. The jury, judge and counsel were driven in carriage to the brick works in which Beliesa had been employed and the vicinity of which the body was discovered.

The first witness was Deblanes, a Publican, who testified that he had here heard Yushinski's aunt, Natali, who I'h has since died from tuberculosis, say: is no

"His own people killed him."

This remark, according to the wittness, was made before the arrival of the authorities at the cave and before the character of the wounds on the boy's body had been ascertained.

The witness added that Yushinski's uncle. Theodore Nejinsky, had visited a cafe on April 1, ten days after the crime, when he seemed excited. His overcoat was splashed with clay.

MURDER TRIAL IN RUSSIA ing brought in Kiev, Russia, in the trial of Maudel Beilis, a Russian Jew, charged with murdering a Christian boy to obtain blood for use in the religious cere-mony of the Passover, were adopted at mass meting of representative Jews

The resolutions after reciting "there to the public prosecutor at Kiev.